The Long Island Chess Nuts is a non-profit organization, whose goals are to promote the educational and positive benefits of chess to all children. It currently has over 2,200 members, with many chess champions. It is "the largest organization on Long Island where children can advance their chess skills," as quoted in The NY Times (Mar. 15, 1998); and it "provides a regular schedule of play and instruction for school-age children...[in] the sport of kings," Newsday (Dec. 12, 1998). It has also been featured on Nickelodeon, TV Channels 25 and 12. Sponsors and supporters of this organization have included Citibank, The Dime Savings Bank, Roosevelt Field, Anton Newspapers, Sears, Senator Kemp Hannon, and many others. It is also a member of the Garden City Chamber of Commerce.
